

LAW MAKERS ARE COMING TO ISLAND

Members of Congress Attending Political Conventions Will Take in Fort Armstrong Event.

WILSON OPENS CELEBRATION

President Will Touch Button Sending Message to Be Received By Grandson of Black Hawk.

With the national conventions of the three principal political parties being held in the middle west during the present and next weeks, the directors of the Fort Armstrong Centennial association are expecting a large number of the men prominent in public life to avail themselves of the opportunity of visiting the three cities during centennial week, June 18-25.

The opportunity afforded the members of both the federal legislative bodies to visit the site of the Rock Island arsenal where the proposed nitrate plant is to be established, is an unusual one and many senators and congressmen have announced their intention of attending during their trip to this section for the conventions.

Scott Cannot Come.

The directors of the association were extremely regretful this morning when a letter was received from General K. L. Scott, chief of staff, from Washington, D. C., stating that he would be unable to attend the celebration because of pressure of business in the war department. Following is General Scott's letter:

"I have just received your kind invitation to be present at the Fort Armstrong centennial celebration, June 18-24, and thank you very much indeed for your courtesy. I take great interest in all these early historical points of the west, and am very glad to see that you are making a perpetual memorial. I would be greatly pleased if I could leave Washington to attend your celebration, but the situation on the border at the present time will not permit me to go that far away."

CLASS PLAYS ARE TO BE PRESENTED

Seniors of St. Joseph's School Will Give Pleasing Productions June 14 and 15.

BEING CAREFULLY COACHED

Dean J. J. Quinn Awards Diplomas and Certificates of Graduation Following Sunday.

Commencement exercises of St. Joseph's school, Second avenue and Fourteenth street, Rock Island, will be augmented June 14 and 15 when class plays will be presented by the young women and young men graduates respectively, under the direction of the Sisters of Charity, B. V. M., and Lucila Cook Canterbury, teacher of dramatic art. Diplomas and certificates of graduation and awarding of honor medals will be presented by Dean J. J. Quinn, Sunday, June 18, at St. Joseph's church, school sessions closing the preceding Friday.

"Where the Beautiful River Flows," has been chosen as the medium for Wednesday evening's play and will be given at 8 o'clock by the young men seniors. They have been rehearsing diligently and a very good performance of a striking little play is assured. It is sympathetic in motif and contains some lively comedy in the character of Barney McCoy. A pretty refrain runs throughout that gives the play its name and there are other songs. The story concerns the quest of Lord O'Neil for his brother's lost child and takes him from his home in Ireland to Spain. After many adventures in the Castilian land his search is rewarded and he restores the child to his rightful place as the son of an Irish earl, taking along with him the faithful Bernardo, who desires only to dwell "in that humble cot near quaint old Galway Bay. To me it is the sweetest spot on earth near the grave where sleeps Mariette."

Following is the cast of characters and those taking the respective parts and who will be assisted by the boys of the school in the bands of hunters, bandits and little Spaniards:

Lord O'Neil William Wheelan
Don Alonso Francis La Velle
Don Ignacio Joseph Heitrich
Desmond William Gruby
Leonardo Francis Heidemann
Barney Leo Marron
Bernardo Joseph Coyle
Giovanni Edwin Kehoe
Zorgi John Keane
Captain Daniel Corken
Salvini Shirley Rispin
Oberto Francis Hayes
Edmundo Albert Aldinegar
Molino Francis Evans

"A sensible cigarette—that's what I want"

There are a number of good cigarettes on the market—Fatimas are not the only ones.

But Fatimas are the best-liked and best-selling of all cigarettes costing over 5c.

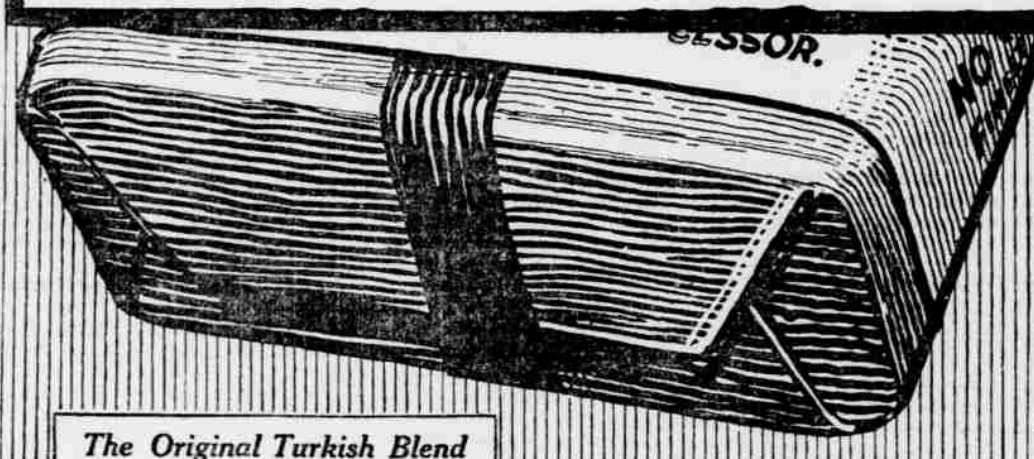

Of course, your taste may be different—you may not like Fatimas as well as all these thousands of other men do.

But you can't deny that they are worth trying—not only for the delicious taste that has made them so famous, but also to see just how SENSIBLE they really are—sensible because Fatimas are cool and comfortable to the throat and tongue at all times and because they leave no "mean" or "heady" feeling even though you may smoke more often than usual.

If you would prove how really sensible a cigarette can be—try Fatimas.

CAPT. VON PAPEN NOW IN HOLLAND

German Military Attache Recalled Recently From Washington Reported On Secret Mission.

Amsterdam, Netherlands. (Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—Captain Franz von Papen, recalled at the request of the United States government as military attache of the German embassy at Washington, and who has come to Holland on a secret mission, has a purpose which is threefold, according to the Amsterdam Telegraph. This newspaper does not mention Captain von Papen by name, but alludes to him as a "first class specialist who only recently arrived here after covering himself with worldwide fame in the exercise of functions in another neutral country."

The Telegraph says that the "specialist" has come here, first, to obtain information of military and political nature; second, to watch foreigners residing or visiting Holland; and, third, to endeavor to influence public opinion in favor of Germany.

The German "secret information service" in Holland is being reorganized, the Telegraph asserts, and efforts of the "specialist" along this line being the centralizing of diverse and scattered elements of the Teutonic espionage service in this country. He has established the Central Protective Service at The Hague and progress has been made with the organization.

The cast and personnel of both plays:

JULIUS CAESAR, ACT II, SCENE I.
Brutus Dorothy Waldman
Portia Helen Thiele
Cassius Fay Stollenberg
Lucius Mary Thais Cavanaugh
Decius Margaret Geigel
Ligarius Catherine McNellis
Cinna Helen Fisher
Trebonius Lucile Ullman
Trebolius Mary Ellen Kone

TYROLIEN QUEEN.
Rosalie Marie Houldsworth
Gypsy queen Winifred Heidemann
Fairy queen Alice Wynn
Kyriakia Louise Burt
Josephine Irene McLeod
Corinna Frances Campana
Maid of honor Helen McCullough
Hazel Cunningham, Catherine Fuller, Mabel Smith.

This is the third annual commencement to take place in the new school building and the exercises have always brought out big attendance. One can imagine the amount of work required of the sisters in getting ready for such elaborate presentations and no doubt large audiences will attend both performances.

Political Announcement.

I hereby announce my candidacy for the republican nomination for state's attorney of Rock Island county and solicit the support of my friends. Primary Sept. 13, 1916.

of the service at Rotterdam, according to the newspaper, which declares that similar efforts at Amsterdam have been a little backward.

In the Rotterdam branch of the service, the Telegraph says, 142 men and 62 women have been enrolled, recruited principally among waiters, porters and other hotel and cafe employes.
